

KULTUREN

Welcome to Kulturens Östarp!

- |    |                                |   |     |                               |  |
|----|--------------------------------|---|-----|-------------------------------|--|
| 1. | Parking                 |   | 7.  | The Malt House         | Was used to dry malt for brewing beer.   |
| 2. | Östarp Hall             |   | 8.  | The Watermill          | Was primarily used to grind rye.   |
| 3. | Östarp's Gästgivaregård | Pick up and return your map here.                         | 9.  | Gamlegård/The Old Farm | Typical Scanian farm. Rebuilt in 1812 after a big fire. During the summer season you can have a look inside. |
| 4. | The Windmill            | The windmill was moved here in 1924.                      | 10. | Gamlegård's Garden     | A lot of Hanna Jöns Persson's garden from the late 19th century is still intact.                             |
| 5. | Möllegården/Mölle Farm  | Private, for the owner of the animals                     | 11. | Alrik's Farm           | Not open to visitors yet.  |
| 6. | Brytestugan             | Was used to dry and break flax, the plant used for linen. |     |                               |  |